The Business Office of the Procus Datty RECORD has been removed to Lynch's Brick Building, Lacour street, near Main, where all orders for work will be attended to by GEO. T. GORMAN.

We do not delight in the misery of man or beast. Whether friend or foe, we would always sooner see them happy and contented than otherwise. Being wretched or ill tempered seldom contributes to make any one useful or a more agreeable associate. Therefore, for the comfort of others as well as our selves, we would always sooner see satisfied contentment than unrest and growling. But with all this milk of human kindness that occupies so large portion of our bosom, we must plead guilty to harboring a feeling of satisfaction when we read the mournful howl, as reported by telegraph, to have been uttered by the Southern carpet-baggers, in which they complain that the Nothern Republicans have turned the cold shoulder upon them, and say that for all the evils caused by the reconstruction acts and the officials installed under those acts, the Ropublicans of the North are alone responsible. This grievious wail has been elicited because the people are waking up to the necessity of restoring peace, security and prosperity to the Southern States, so long the theater of way they get rid of returns that would anarchy and corruption of every and the defeat the carpet baggers is to get their worst character. We think these fel- clerk to steal the returns and testimony. the Interior. lows are not just or truthful (traits, in- The Chief Clerk of the Board, Campdeed, of which they never were accused) bell, has just been engaged in this laudto the Northern Republicans. It is true able enterprise, and as a consequence that the representatives of that party in the Board does as it pleases, which was Congress originated and passed the reconstruction acts, but those measures, even the most ill advised and harshest, never authorized stealings, trauds and of rascals on oath. We know the Louisiperjuries. Not a line or a word can be anian Returning Board of old, and are found in the statutes referred to that fully aware that they would no more could by any construction be made to boggle at wholesale perjury then they authorize Scott and Moses, of South Carolina, and Bullock, of Georgia, stealing everything they could lay their hands on and supporting their swindles by fraud and perjuries. Those acts did not authorize Moses to pardou the worst criminals as fast as they were convicted, or Kellogg to usurp the Government of Louisiana, or Warmoth to steal himself rich, or the Returning Board to swear to a lie and say that certain men were elected when they know they were asserting a falsehood. Those acts did not authorize Reed of Florida to Bullockise that State or Davis of Texas to enter into a conspiracy with one of his judges by which the property of two whole counties was swept away and many lives sacrificed. The reconstruction acts did not authorize or give any color for the commission of these deeds, nor were they meant to do so. Respecting the wisdom, justice or expediency of those acts, we do not propose to make any remarks, but we can confidently assert that when Congress passed those acts it did not intend to render the Southern States formerly in rebellion a mere prey for the spoiler. No such motive we are certain ever ac tuated a member of the national legislature when those acts were passed. No, the carpet baggers must stand on their own bottom. Their sins must be borne by them alone. They have sowed the wind and must reap the whirlwind. They have broken every trust, committed every crime: they have reduced vast and popand they are the men that did it. It will not do for them to lay their sins at the door of their party. They were not told to conspire against the lives and liberties of their fellow citizens, to steal their property, to degrade them, to drive them to utter desnair and rais. Note that the constant are the constant and their property, to degrade them, to drive them to utter desnair and rais. Neither such a mission can on occasion be honthe Republican party or the Reconstruction and give a fair unbiased statement of tion acts ever told or authorized them to commit those crimes. So they had better repent and try to make restitution rather than raise a lugubrious howl and attempt to father their crimes upon people who have no complicity or sympathy UNMASKED,-So the Katie King humbug has at last been exposed. The supposed ghost of the departed has been traced to a mundane boarding house where the letters and presents of her dupes were found. This discovery will, we expect, put a damper upon the seance business for some time. It will take the Banner of Light and other publications of a similar stamp a good while to explain away the chicanery. The remarkthe supposed Katie took him in so neatly, even the illustrious Dr. Johnson was humbugged by the Cock Lane Ghost.

DAN VOORHEES, the tall sycamore of the Wabash, is on his knees before his constituents respecting his complicity in the back pay swindle. In reply the electors of his district should tell him that contrition was now out of season. That it makes no difference who the offenders were whether black or white, Republican or Democrat, if they touched that forbidden fruit they must abide the consequences and step down and out. It is time for politicians of all parties to learn that they cannot steal, pocket the proceeds and not receive the severest condemnation of the decent and hones portion of the community.

Ws wonder what Senator Conkling's inducement is that has caused him to ask that the depreciated securities of the District of Columbia be exchanged for United States bonds. We would wager a smooth quarter that Boss Shepherd is managing that little job.

GENERAL SHERMAN says he is not allowed the services of a clerk. Of course not, there is too much stealing going on to permit any legitimate demands to be attended to.

From the account published of the reception of King Kalakava it will be seen that Fred Grant was turned into a sort of Deputy President.

MORTON ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

We believe that the telegraph as usual has been blundering and putting words in Senator Morton's mouth that he did not utter. The dispatches say that the Indiana Senator stated in the Senate "that he would not vote for bringing the curse of negro suffrage again on the people of the District of Columbia." Why. what does the man mean? For years he has been preaching on the delights and advantages of bestowing the suffrage on the negroes, and now here he is saying it is a curse. If the Senator is reported correctly, and it is also correct that negro suffrage is a curse in the District of Columbia, the question naturally occurs to the inquiring mind, What must it be in Louisiana, South Carolina and Mississippi ? The distinguished Senator from Indiana must have become a convert to Montgomery Blair's doctrine that giving the suffrage to the negroes was presenting them with a marketable commodity, which they would certainly sell to the highest bidder. If that is not the case, we fear the medicinal waters of California have flown to Morton's head and affected his memory. For Morton to say that negro suffrage is a curse, is as wonderful as it would be to find a carpet bagger an honest man and an useful member of the community.

That Louisiana Returning Board is thing of beauty and a joy forever. The would at a mint julep.

son (so the dispatches have it, but we SAN FRANCISCO STOCK REPORT expect it is Johnstone, of West Virginia) has introduced a bill to give Government wonder when railroad men will learn to conduct their business at their own expense instead of at the nation's. Managed upon the principles that governed the Pacific and other roads, railway building is the neatest method known of making a fortune out of nothing. It is so pleasant to have the people pay the bills and then make a present of the line to a ring of lobbying Shoddyites.

THE Judiciarry Committee have reported a Supplementary Civil Rights mixed schools and cometeries. Why the mixed schools and cemeteries. Why the latter provision was altered, Heaven only knows. If there is any place where all ranks and conditions of the human race are on an equality, it is in the City of the Dead. Color is very little consequeuce in a grave-yard. As regards the schools, the expression of public opinion on that matter was too plainly pronounced for even a gag-law, salary-grabbing Congress to disregard.

"TELL IT ALL."-We do hope that the Congressional committees sent to Vicksburg and Louisians will for once throw party predelictions to the winds and ascertain the true facts of the matthe whole affair.

THERE is another row about schools at New Orleans. The darkies, like the monkeys at Exeter Change, insist upon feeding out of their neighbor's dish instead of being content with their own. It is no matter if schools are provided for them equally as good as those for the white children, that does not do. It is insisted that the little darkies shall attend the same schools as the whites. If that plan is attempted to be enforced the result will be, that there will be no schools for either whites or blacks.

One hundred thousand dollar has been pared down from the expenses of the National Soldiers Home for disabled soldiers, and the House is cackling over able thing about the matter is, that so it.
